Street Trading Policy

1.0 INTRODUCTION

1.1 Introduction

Street Trading covers a wide range of outdoor retail and catering activities undertaken in public streets. It includes familiar sights such as flower sellers, ice-cream vendors, fancy goods, souvenir stalls and a variety of hot and cold catering activities.

The City Council has adopted a scheme under the Local Government (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act 1982 to regulate most forms of street trading - that is, selling from a van, stall, barrow, suitcase etc, in a street.

The consent only applies to areas within the City boundary. District Councils in other areas have adopted similar schemes for controlling street trading. If you need information about street trading in other Districts you should enquire at the Council Offices for that District.

1.2 Purpose of the Policy

1.2.1 Gloucester City Council understands that street trading activities are an essential part of a vibrant and lively city and is important to both the local environment and local economy.

1.2.2 This Policy works alongside Gloucester's Regeneration and Economic Development Strategy

1.2.3 This document will guide the City Council when it considers applications for street trading consents and will inform applicants of the criteria against which applications will be considered.

1.2.4 It is the intention that this Policy will be reviewed every five years or more frequently should legislative changes deem necessary.

1.3 The Objectives of the Policy

1.3.1 The objective of the Policy is to create a trading environment in which street trading compliments existing premises based retailing activities, is sensitive to the needs of residents and provides diversity in terms of consumer choice.

1.3.2 This Policy aims to ensure that street trading does not undermine safe and efficient passage along public highways.

1.3.3 This Policy aims to balance the needs of the wider community, local community and street traders against the needs of those who may be adversely affected by street trading activities.

1.3.4 This Policy aims to provide a consistent and transparent approach in the way in which the Council deals with street trading to ensure that it is appropriately and proportionately controlled in line with the Council's Corporate Enforcement Policy.

1.3.5 In developing this policy, considerations were given to the legal requirements of the Local Government (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act 1982 (the Act) and our duties under:

(a) Section 17 of the Crime and Disorder Act 1998 to take all reasonable steps to reduce crime and disorder were considered.

(b) The Regulators' Code (set out under the Legislative and Regulatory Reform Act 2006) not to impede economic progress by the regulations set out and to particularly consider the impact of regulations on small businesses.

(c) The Provision of Services Regulations 2009 to ensure requirements are non-discriminatory justified by an overriding reason relating to the public interest, proportionate to that public interest objective, clear and unambiguous, objective, made public in advance, transparent and accessible.

1.4 Consultation

- 1.4.1 There is no statutory requirement to consult before determining the Street Trading Policy, however, to ensure openness and transparency the Council has chosen to consult with the following people and bodies:-
- All existing Street Traders
 - Development Control (Gloucester City Council)
 - Highways (Gloucestershire County Council)
 - Gloucestershire Constabulary
 - Gloucestershire Fire & Rescue
 - Environmental Protection Team (Gloucester City Council)
 - Chamber of Commerce
 - Heritage (Gloucester City Council)
 - City Centre management (Gloucester City Council)
 - Local Elected Members

1.5 Legislation & Current Provision

- 1.5.1 The Local Government (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act 1982 (Section 3 and Schedule 4) provides the legal framework for the control of street trading in England and Wales. This activity is defined as 'the sale and exposing or offering for sale any article, including a living thing, in a street'. Streets are further defined as to include any road, footway, beach or other area to which the public have access without payment.
- 1.5.2 The main purpose of this legislation is to establish an appropriate regulatory regime which prevents undue nuisance, interference or inconvenience to the public brought about by street trading. This legislation provides local authorities with the power to designate specific areas within their administrative boundaries as either:-
- Prohibited Streets: those which are not open to street traders
 - Consent Streets: where trading is prohibited without Local Authority Consent
 - Licence Streets: where trading is prohibited without a local authority Licence
- 1.5.3 Local Authorities can place conditions on any consent or licence granted The Act creates offences associated with trading in consent or licence streets without the necessary authority; a person guilty of such an offence may be liable, on conviction, to a fine of up to £1000.
- 1.5.4 There are however, a number of exemptions provided in the Act, which are not considered to be street trading. These are detailed at paragraph 6 of this Policy. However, it is important to note that exempted traders are still controlled by other regulatory legislation.
- 1.5.5 On 1st April 2009, Gloucester City Council adopted a new street trading management regime which designated all streets in Gloucester City as Consent Streets. Consents provide a more flexible means of controlling street trade and are not limited by statute in their refusal or revocation. Applicants can apply for a consent for any street and applications are assessed on their individual merits.
- 1.5.6 It should be noted that should a street trader wish to sell alcohol or provide late night refreshment additional authorisation is needed under the terms of the Licensing Act 2003.
- 1.5.7 Late Night Refreshment is the supply of hot food or drink between the hours of 11pm and 5am on any day of the week.
- 1.5.8 Licensing Officers will be able to provide further information on the requirements of the Licensing Act 2003.
- 1.5.9 The Children and Young Persons Act 1933, as amended by the Children and Young Persons Act 1963, controls the employment of children in street trading. The Act prohibits the employment of children under 17 years of age for the purposes of street trading.

 - c. Trading on a trunk road picnic area under Section 112 of the Highways Act 1980

 - e. Petrol filling stations
 - f. Shop forecourts

- g. Roundsman (as they have defined customers, defined routes, this is the traditional milk round delivering to order, recently sandwich roundsmen have appeared, if the sandwiches are pre-ordered then an exemption would apply, however, most turn up and act as mobile sandwich vendors, this type of trading will not be exempt and requires a street trading consent)
- h. Objects or structures placed on, in or over a highway under Part VIII A of the Highways Act 1980
- i. Operation of facilities for recreation or refreshment under Part VIII A of the Highways Act 1980

- 1.7.3 The consent will be issued for the duration of the specified event only and will be to a named individual. Where the application is made by an organisation they must nominate a named individual who will be responsible for managing the use of the consent.
- 1.7.4 The consent holder will be responsible for ensuring compliance with the conditions attached to the consent at all times whilst the consent is being used to facilitate street trading.

2.0 APPLICATIONS

2.1 Advice for New Applicants

- 2.1.1 New applicants are advised to contact the Council at their earliest opportunity, preferably before an application is made. This allows Officers to provide advice as well as clarifying any areas of uncertainty.
- 2.1.2 It is the responsibility of the applicant, in the first instance, to identify the location(s) they wish to trade as there is no designated list of street trading 'pitches' that can be traded from.
- 2.1.3 The Council can also provide advice in relation to other legal requirements of a new Consent Holder, for example, planning permission or food safety requirements.

2.2 Disclosure & Barring Service (DBS)

- 2.2.1 Applicants applying for a new street trading consent will be expected to obtain a basic DBS certificate which must be no more than one calendar month old when submitted to the Council.
- 2.2.2. The DBS certificate must be in the name and address of the applicant as detailed on the application form.
- 2.2.3 The original certificate must accompany the application form.
- 2.2.4 The Council will ask for a new DBS certificate from an applicant every third year beginning with the year after the issue of a new consent.
- 2.2.5 The DBS certificate will be expected to accompany a renewal application every three years and the Council will make it clear to applicants when this is required.

2.3 Suitability of Applicant

- 2.3.1 When determining an application for the grant or renewal of a street trading consent the Council will consider all relevant information relating to the suitability of the applicant to hold such a consent. Street Traders and their commercial activities are often subject to minimum levels of supervision. They interact closely with members of the public and it is important that the public, especially vulnerable people are protected from harm, and from those who may harm them, wherever possible.
- 2.3.2 The Council will determine whether the applicant is a suitable person to carry on business as a street trader and may not issue a consent unless satisfied that the applicant is suitable. In determining this, the Council may have regard to any information, which it considers relevant including:-

- Whether the applicant has been convicted of a relevant offence;

Applicants are required to obtain a DBS certificate before making application, see paragraph 2.2 above

- Refusal or neglect in paying fees due to the Council for a street trading consent, or for any other charges due for services rendered by the Council to the applicant in his capacity as the holder of a street trading consent;
- Previous failures of the applicant, without reasonable excuse, to make use, to a reasonable extent, of a previous street trading consent;

- Any previous enforcement action;
- Any previous refusal of an application for the grant or renewal of a Street Trading Consent;
- Any previous revocation of a Street Trading Consent.

2.3.3 Identification badges will be issued by the Council to demonstrate the suitability of the consent holder and any assistants who may be trading on their behalf. Other employees may not need to apply for DBS check and an identification badge as long as they are supervised at all times by a badge holder.

2.3.4 Identification badges do not reflect the street trading consent. Consent holders are still required to display their consent on their unit. Each applicant or assistant will only require one badge per person; this applies if they trade under more than one street trading consent.

Guidelines on the suitability of applicants

General Principles

The primary aim of this policy is public protection. To help in achieving that aim, the council will consider the suitability of applicants to be authorised as street traders. Street traders and their commercial activities are often subject to minimum levels of supervision. They interact closely with members of the public and it is important that the public, especially vulnerable people are protected from harm and from those who may harm them, where ever possible.

The Council will determine whether the applicant is a suitable person to carry on business as a street trader and may not issue a licence unless satisfied that the applicant is suitable, in determining this, the authority may have regard to any information, which it considers to be relevant, in particular:

- Whether the applicant has been convicted of any relevant offence;
- Whether the applicant has been the subject of any relevant enforcement action;
- Any previous refusal of an application for the issue or renewal of a street trading consent (and the reasons for the refusal);
- Any previous revocation of a street trading consent (and the reasons for the revocation)

For the purposes of this policy, relevant offences include unspent convictions and cautions, for offences involving dishonesty, the use and supply of controlled drugs, violence and offences of a sexual nature, which are less than 3 years old from the date of application, will be included in the consideration of whether the applicant is a suitable person to hold a licence.

A person with a conviction for a relevant offence will be expected to have remained free of conviction for a period of time, before an application is granted. Some discretion may be exercised if the offence is isolated, minor in nature and there are mitigating circumstances. However, the overriding consideration will always be the protection of the public.

Notwithstanding the above, the Council is aware of its duty not to restrict its discretion and it shall permit representations from the applicant explaining why it may nevertheless, be appropriate to receive consent.

Guidelines on the relevance of convictions

Each case will be decided on its own merits.

(1) The Council will assess whether:

- (a) an applicant for the grant or renewal of a street trading consent is a suitable person to hold or to continue to hold a street trading consent,
- (b) a person who wishes to be registered as an assistant to a street trading consent holder or to continue to be registered as an assistant to a street trading consent holder is a suitable person to be registered as an assistant to a street trading consent holder.

In making that assessment, the Council consider the previous convictions of such persons.

(2) In considering the previous convictions of those persons mentioned in paragraph 1 the Council will consider the following:-

- (a) whether the conviction is relevant;
- (b) the seriousness of the offence;
- (c) the length of time since the offence occurred;
- (d) whether there is a pattern of offending behaviour;
- (e) whether that person's circumstances have changed since the offence occurred;
- (f) the circumstances surrounding the offence and the explanation offered by that person.

(3) The following examples provide a general guide on the action to be taken where relevant convictions and cautions are evident:

(a) Offences involving Violence

Applicant with convictions for offences involving violence will be considered carefully. Depending on the nature and seriousness of the offence, when applicants have convictions for causing grievous bodily harm, wounding, assault, or even more serious offences involving violence. In general, a period of three to ten years free of convictions should elapse before an application will be granted.

(b) Drug related offences

An isolated conviction for a drug offence, whether for unlawful possession only or involving the supply of controlled drugs, will not necessarily prevent an applicant from obtaining a street trading consent, provided the applicant has at least three years free of convictions.

An application will normally be refused where an applicant has more than one conviction for offences related to the possession of drugs and the last conviction or the date of release from jail, where a custodial sentence has been imposed, is less than 5 years before the date of the application.

(c) Sexual offences

Applicants with any unspent sexual related offences will not normally be granted a street trading consent.

(d) Dishonesty

The holders of a street trading consent and their assistants have to be persons who can be trusted. It is easy for a dishonest trader or assistant to take advantage of the public. Members of the public using a street trading outlet expect the holder and his assistant to be honest and trustworthy. For these reasons a serious view will be taken of any conviction involving dishonesty.

Convictions for isolated minor offences will not necessarily prevent an applicant from obtaining a street trading consent but in cases involving serious theft or fraud, at least three years should elapse before an application is granted. When offences of dishonesty have been accompanied by violence, at least five years free of conviction should elapse before an application will be granted.

(e) Motoring Convictions

In most cases, motoring offences are unlikely to be relevant when deciding if an applicant for a street trading consent or to be registered as an assistant to the holder of a street trading consent is a suitable person. However, there may be instances where the offences are of a very serious nature. In those cases, an applicants would be expected to show a period of at least 3 years free of any such convictions from the date of conviction or the date of release from jail, where a custodial sentence has been imposed.

(f) Formal Cautions and fixed penalty notices.

For the purposes of these guidelines, the Council will treat Formal Cautions issued in accordance with Home Office guidance and fixed penalty notices as though they were a conviction before the courts.

In all cases, each individual application will be decided on its own merits.

Disclosure and Barring (DBS)

All application forms must be accompanied by a basic disclosure as the Council must be satisfied that he applicant is a suitable person. Apply for basic disclosure online via Request a basic DBS check - GOV.UK \(www.gov.uk\)

If any unspent convictions or cautions are declared, depending on their nature, then the Council may as part of the application process hold a hearing to determine whether the applicant is a suitable person to hold a street trading consent. The application will not proceed until the suitability of the applicant has been determined.
